

Frequently asked Questions FAQ's

I cannot see my question;

Email manlycombinedclubs@gmail.com

Is the Friday night briefing compulsory?

Yes, we are concerned for every one's safety. Just as important you will receive your "Pirate Passport", 1st envelope with instructions and your "Bounty"

What if we get lost from the other boats?

All entries will receive a "Sealed – in case of emergency" envelope, BUT, if that envelope is opened you will receive negative pirate points. All boats can keep connected with VHF Radio channel 72.

Will the children be included?

Absolutely, this is very much a family adventure.

Do I need to dress up?

Like all dress up parties you will blend in awesomely.

Where can we sleep?

If you cannot sleep on your boat let us know and we can arrange camping for you.

What about if I just want to do the one day and want to get back home?

Public Transport is available but let us know in advance and we can advise best ways to get back home.

What do I need to bring?

GSOH, change of clothes and refreshments for Saturday. BYO, Lunch for Sunday.

Will there be showers and Toilets available?

Yes, we will have facilities.

Are there shops?

Yes, we are not that far away from civilization.

Can I fish?

Most people can't so you will fit right in, Please bring two loaves of bread to share.

Do I need waterproof Mascara?

Absolutely, all pirates wear mascara and you can swim where we will be. You will need it more so when you lose at our planned activities.